The conference is addressed to bachelor and master level students. Conference aim is to bring together students from different universities from all over the world to discuss and present their researches on informatics and related fields (like computational algebra, numerical calculus, bioinformatics, etc,) and their results. The conference welcomes submissions of original papers on all aspects of informatics and related fields ranging from new concepts and theoretical developments to advanced technologies and innovative applications. Paper acceptance and publication will be judged on the basis of their relevance to the conference themes, clarity of presentation, originality and accuracy of results and proposed solutions. The presentation should include also an application. Pure theoretical results are accepted only if they introduce new concepts.

Topics (Topics of interest include, but are not limited to)

Algorithms and data structures	Networking
Graph theory and applications	Grid computing
Formal languages and compilers	Mobile operating systems
Cryptography	Scientific computing
Modeling and simulation	Software engineering
Computer programming	Bioinformatics
Computer vision	Robotics
Computer graphics	Computer Architecture
Game design	Evolutionary Computing
Data mining	Multimedia Systems
Distributed computing	Internet Communication and Technologies
Artificial Intelligence	Web Applications
Service oriented applications

General information

Important dates

April 19, 2015 – Deadline for registration and full paper submission

April 26, 2015 – Notification of acceptance

May 10, 2015 – Submission deadline for final versions of the accepted papers

May 21 -23, 2015 – Date of the conference

Fees

Participation, conference materials and proceedings volume (on CD) are free of charge. Accommodation, travel and meal costs have to be supported by each participant.

Publishing

The conference's papers will be reviewed by two independent reviewers and published in a proceedings volume with ISSN.

Chair of the conference
