IV. Choosing optional courses. Conditions.

In the 1st-4th semester the students are due to choose a group of optional disciplines according to their final specialization. The optional group is maintained to the end of the degree examination. The discipline for the final degree examination as well as the degree masterwork will correspond to the chosen group.

V. Conditions for attending the next study-year. Conditions for grading a study-year. Conditions for starting over.

In order to attend the next study-year, the student is supposed to obtain qualifications for the modules of compulsory and optional courses, minimum 30 credits, according to the Regulations concerning the professional activity of the students in ULBS.

As for the conditions, the disciplines are to be pursued in the order of the course plan beginning with the first study year. In the courses plan for the history degree programme, speciality and optional disciplines for the three study years are stipulated in a quantum of 30% of the total number of credits, accompanied by mandatory and discretionary disciplines. For each semester of the 1st and 2nd study year speciality disciplines are set, and for the 5th and 6th semester in the third year the students are supposed to choose at least one discipline from the modules of optional courses.

Conditions in order to prevail a study-year. A study year is considered as prevailed when the 60 credits of the courses plan disciplines of the respective study year are obtained.

Conditions for starting over. The students who do not obtain the necessary credits for their promotion in the next university year are inscribed, by application, in the unpromoted study year, respecting the conditions in the Regulations concerning the Teaching Process with transferable credits of the ULBS. (Regulamentul privind procesul de învățământ pe baza sistemului de credite transferabile al ULBS). The students are supposed to meet the needs of the teaching plan of the respective promotion, by acquiring the credits for the disciplines remained behind in tax system.
